Welcome

Welcome to The Wish Centre!

As the CEO of The Wish Centre, I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to all candidates interested in joining our team as IDVA / Op Provide IDVA.

Are you passionate about making a real difference in the lives of those affected by domestic abuse? Do you have the skills to deliver trauma-informed, empowering support that promotes safety, recovery and change? If so, we'd love to hear from you.

The Wish Centre is seeking a flexible IDVA to work across generic support and that at the Police Stations, to join our experienced and compassionate team. This is a vital role providing the first point of contact for victims of domestic abuse, offering timely advice, information, emotional and practical support, and ensuring access to the right services at the right time.

The post may be delivered by one full-time IDVA or as a job share arrangement, with duties shared across generic IDVA and Operation Provide activity.

If you need help with any aspect of the process, please contact our Head of People & Culture: stephanie.sayers@thewishcentre.org.

I look forward to welcoming a dedicated and talented Head of Finance and Resources to The Wish Centre family.

Best regards,

Shigufta Khan
CEO, The Wish Centre

Our Values

At The Wish Centre, our values shape who we are, how we work and the people we recruit.

Our Vision

A world free from domestic abuse.

Our Mission

To raise awareness, educate communities and empower individuals to live free from domestic abuse through support, safe accommodation, behaviour change programmes and training.

We are a values-led organisation and look for people who consistently demonstrate our values in their behaviour, decisions and relationships.

Our Values: H.E.R.E

Holistic

We work with the whole person and family, recognising the lasting impact of domestic abuse.

This means working with compassion, using trauma-informed approaches, collaborating with others and supporting wellbeing.

Education

We believe education creates change.

This means being open to learning, challenging stigma and sharing knowledge to improve practice.

Respect

Respect underpins everything we do.

This means being inclusive and non-judgemental, valuing lived experience and communicating ethically.

Empower

We support people to make informed choices and regain control.

This means working alongside people, focusing on strengths and encouraging independence.

What This Means for You

Working at The Wish Centre is challenging and rewarding. We are looking for compassionate, reflective people who are committed to our H.E.R.E values. If this sounds like you, we would welcome your application.

Job Description

Who Are We?

We support victims of domestic abuse and are unique in delivering our perpetrator education support programme. For 35 years we have been at the forefront of developing and delivering specialist services to individuals and families. Our services include a helpline, advice and IDVA service, refuge accommodation, counselling programmes for victims, schools-based programmes; behaviour change programmes, counselling services, access to free legal support, volunteering opportunities and peer support groups. We are looking for someone who can embrace and extend our support through enthusiasm, passion and drive.

Creating Safe, Inclusive Opportunities for All

At The Wish Centre, we are proud to be a Trauma-Informed Organisation, which means we approach every aspect of our work—including recruitment—with an understanding of the impact of trauma and a commitment to creating safe, supportive, and empowering environments. This approach shapes how we engage with applicants, ensuring sensitivity, respect, and fairness throughout the process.

Our values of H.E.R.E—Holistic, Educate, Respect, Empower—guide everything we do. We strive to recruit individuals who share these values and are passionate about supporting the communities we serve.

We are committed to equality, diversity, and inclusion and welcome applications from people of all backgrounds. We particularly value lived experience, and encourage individuals with personal or indirect experience of domestic abuse to join us as trustees, staff, or volunteers. If you choose to share this information during recruitment, it will be treated with the utmost confidentiality and only disclosed to the interview panel or HR as necessary.

Purpose of the Role

This post delivers a generic Independent Domestic Violence Advocate (IDVA) service alongside Operation Provide IDVA work within a police setting.
